About me

I am a hardworking student at the University of Liverpool & a self-taught App, Game, and Web Developer. I taught myself how to develop websites using JavaScript and ReactJS, android apps using the Android SDK and React Native, and games using Unity and C# - all within the span of a year while also balancing studies. This goes to show, I am a very quick learner and am eager to learn new technologies and develop my skills. Almost all of my websites, apps, games, extensions, even a programming language I made - are all open-source and available on github.com/VirejDasani or on my website virejdasani.github.io/. In my free time I like making game development videos for my YouTube channel: youtube.com/Virej/ which has amassed a following of over 9,000 subscribers and has over 1.5 Million views. This combined with my experience of being the Social Secretary of the Computer Science Society at the University of Liverpool (CompSoc), has given me strong leadership and organizational skills, as well as the ability to effectively communicate and collaborate in a team setting.
